Jen Harwood motivates audiences all over Australia and internationally in the areas of business, networking, marketing & sales, work/life balance, family business and building personal confidence. Jen is a nationally recognised professional speaker and award winner with the National Speakers Association of Australia. She inspires audiences all over Australia and is a current Judge for the Middle Eastern Business Achievement Awards in Dubai. Even with all her travel, Jen's base is Bendigo, and she really enjoys speaking at local events. If you want a genuine, motivating and professional business speaker to inspire your participants into action, Jen is a must.
